Atlanta Bread has utilized an accredited third party company to compile our nutritional information. USDA research has found that nutritional values of foods can vary between individual samples of a particular food by as much as 20%, due to such factors as season, soil conditions, region of the country, product suppliers and other factors. Therefore, data listed on the nutrition reports represent approximations only and fall within the Food and Drug Administrations' allowable variance. The values listed in the Nutrition Facts label on the reports are rounded according to FDA's guidelines. Due to this Atlanta Bread cannot guarantee the complete accuracy of the nutritional data provided on this site or at our cafes. Many of our products contain or may come into contact with common allergens, including wheat, peanuts, soy, tree nuts, milk, eggs, fish and shellfish.

CP - Gluten Free Items - While some items that are listed as Gluten Free are Gluten Free by our process, we are not able to certify that they are gluten free and do not contain any gluten. A gluten-free product does not mean it is safe for people with celiac disease or gluten sensitivity.
